

Serenity

There was more than the sounding of loud engines and the smell of burning fuel Saturday when the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce put on its annual regatta at the Municipal Marina. Serene beauty was also available as caught here by the camera's eye from atop the Rim Canal Bridge. The quiet moment was captured as several boats were already on the water waiting for the next marathon race down the four mile course but in the still before the storm there was little indication of the whirlwind action to come. More pictures are in the sports section.

Steppin' out

STEPPING OUT in Friday's Veteran's Day Parade on Main Street, this World War I vet marched in solitary splendor behind the color guards of the Army and Air Force in the parade which included several hundred participants from all over the county. There were veterans from a number of organizations, such as those below, flying their flags and giving a smart eyes right as they passed the reviewing stand with its complement of VIPs, music from the Glades Day School Band, the Forty and Eight train from the coast, tin lizzies, clowns and even a horse-drawn wagon.

One way: Is it the wrong way for city?

BELLE GLADE--Hard and fast plans by the City Commission to turn several blocks of downtown streets into one-way avenues no longer seemed so sure after a number of merchants protested the move at the Monday night regular commission meeting.

No public hearing had been scheduled on the one-way of West Avenue A, Southwest Avenue B and Southwest Fourth Street between the two avenues but the merchants appeared at the meeting following a meeting they'd had last week with city administrators.

Six merchants stood to make their protests when the commission took up the question of whether to spend more than $10,000 for signal lights at Southwest Avenue B and South Main.

The commissioners decided to hold off on the signalization plans as well as a final decision to one-way the streets until they hear in two weeks from Randy Davidson, who said he will circulate a letter to all the merchants along the streets involved to get their feelings on the matter.

Davidson, who owns Cabin Dry Cleaners with his father, told the commissioner he originally supported the one-way but has changed his mind after checking with several other towns and finding out business has fallen off for merchants in every case when their streets have been one-wayed.

Davidson said there is no traffic congestion problem since Main Street has been four-laned and said the parking problem the one-way is supposed to alleviate is largely the fault of merchants along the street who park their cars and trucks in an area which should be set aside for customers.

He estimated 45 per cent of the spaces are being taken up in this way and commented, "most of these people don't depend on drive-up customers. All of their business comes in on buses."

He said he has tried in the past to get police officers to crack down on persons taking up the parking spaces for all day and

Finance director gone, attorney going

SOUTH BAY--The City Commission found itself Tuesday night without the services of Finance Director A.R. Grigsby and took steps to replace City Attorney Allen Everard with Belle Glade attorney James Gann.

Mayor Billy Wells told the other commissioners present he had talked Thursday with Grigsby and Grigsby had told him that since he had resigned May 31, he felt no need to reappear before the commission to let the commissioners know he was leaving town.

"So far as I know," Wells said, "Mr. Grigsby is gone and won't be back. When I talked to him Thursday, he said he didn't believe he needed to come to the meeting tonight and I agreed with him."

The other commissioners agreed with Wells and Commissioner Vernita Cox, who moved that before the city decides to hire a replacement for Grigsby, it should have a complete audit, "to find out just what the city's assets are."

The commissioners approved a motion by Commissioner Woodrow "Woody" O'Neal to check, with Belle Glade city officials to find whether it would be a good idea to occasionally alternate auditors.

In the vote on the city attorney, Commissioner Don Tanner said he didn't want his motion to reflect on the performance by Everard, who has served as the city attorney for several years, but he felt last year and still feels a local attorney should be hired.

His sentiments were echoed by Mrs. Cox and Wells when Mrs. Cox seconded the motion. The vote to replace Everard with Gann was 4-0. Commissioner Ray Sullivan was absent.

County authorizes Glades bicycle path

WEST PALM BEACH--A bicycle path construction project for the Glades, slated to run from the Palm Beach Junior College-Glades campus to the projected site of the West Tech Educational Center at Hooker Highway on SR 715, was approved Tuesday by the Palm Beach County Commission.

The path, also designed for pedestrians along the busy highway, is part of an overall plan for bike and pedestrian paths throughout the county that will cost a total of $156,000.

In other business affecting the Glades, the commissioners approved Commissioner Bill Bailey's appointments of Bertha Stewart, a Glades Central High School student, to the JOTS (Job Opportunity Training Service) Youth Council and Floyd Erickson of the Pahokee-Canal Point area to the District 9 Mental Health Board.

Methodist ag task force visits

BELLE GLADE--A round table discussion with area growers this morning is expected to wind up a three-day visit to the Glades by the United Methodist Task Force on the Church and Agriculture according to the Rev. Guldmar Blair of Community United Methodist Church in Belle Glade.

Rev. Blair, who is one of six ministers on the committee commissioned by the annual conference of Florida Methodists, said the committee members will have explored a number of areas involving agriculture, especially farm labor, before leaving town.

The committee began Tuesday by touring the Clewiston Medical Center, followed by a meeting with Fred Sikes, former vice president in charge of personnel at U.S. Sugar Corporation in Clewiston and a meeting that night with agricultural employees at the local church.

They were to have begun their day Wednesday by visiting the loading ramp off Southwest Fifth Street at 5:30 a.m. and continued the day with tours of A. Duda and Sons, the Agricultural Research and Education Center, the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida sugar mill and meeting with crew leaders, U.S. Labor Advocate John Fredericks and representatives of the International Aerospace Machinists Union.

Rev. Blair said the committee was appointed to gather data for a report to the annual conference of the church in June 1978, out of which will possibly emerge a statement on the church's position in a number of areas concerning agriculture.

He said the committee was first appointed in response to a number of "social clergymen" in the church who had taken a strong stand in support of Cesar Chavez' United Farm Workers Union.

"The church is made up of a diversity of people," Rev. Blair said, "and a large number of church members didn't agree with the support of the union." He said the Alvaro Sanchez, general manager of the Big B Ranch south of Belle Glade, may unfortunately be quite right.

"Gonna be a long, hard winter," he said the other night, tugging his jacket closer.

Now there are those who doubt this. Last winter was the winter to end all winters, or so we thought. Snow in Miami. In Belle Glade, even.

But Alvaro thinks this one will be even worse. "Started early this year," he says. And one only has to look at the thermometer to agree.

Alvaro was one of the 20 or so who showed up last Thursday night to discuss the possible frontage road on US 27 from South Bay to Okeelanta.

And like his comments on the weather, his comments on the road are brief, to the point, and justified.

"I have to ride US 27 every morning before dawn and every evening after dark," he told a representative of the DOT. "Something's got to be done about Killer 27."

While most of the residents of Belle Glade, Pahokee, and South Bay have been very much concerned about SR 80, they've also been fighting for an improvement in conditions on US 27 between South Bay and Miami.

The hazard sign in South Bay, saying the next 50 miles are dangerous, doesn't do the road justice. Most who know stay off the road altogether, but there are many locals like Alvaro who must drive it daily.

The meeting with the Canal Hazards Safety Committee sparked some early interest among local clubs, but only a few people actually showed up for the scheduled DOT hearing.

"Input hearing" was what it was termed. Input hearings are different from design hearings and both are a long way from being construction hearings, whatever they are.

The whole question concerning this hearing was if a frontage road should be built for local traffic to the west of 27. And FHP officer Ken Buckner noted that as much time is given on the east side as West side, meaning cane trucks would still have to cross 27 to get to the frontage road, which is intended for their use.

The general consensus that could be drawn from the meeting is that a frontage road wouldn't help. That's the message that will be delivered to the DOT.

Another message quite likely to be delivered is that the natives of the Glades are restless. They're tired of being put off for years on 80, improvement of existing roads, and US 27. They don't want more hearings, they want some action.

Glades residents realize the construction of a road is an expensive, time consuming process. But they think, and rightly so I believe, that the Department of Transportation is not working as hard as it might in alleviating conditions.

Trooper Buckner said since he's been in the area, almost ten years, he's only observed two DOT projects (besides the four-lane recently opened between Belle Glade and South Bay).

And more than any of us, he's on these roads and knows of their conditions and the often fatal accidents that are caused by them.

"They just ought to do something," said Alvaro, summing up the feelings of many. "They've ignored us too long."

Back to the subject of Alvaro Sanchez, we got to talking after the meeting and Alvaro figured that beside the weather, he had other troubles.

"I grow cane and cattle," he said. And as everyone knows, nothing is exactly lucrative anymore. With costs rising and prices falling, it's hard to see how some farmers and ranchers are meeting their bills.

And some aren't.

Alvaro had one good thought, however. "I just planted some ryegrass. And the cold will be good for it."

I'm happy to know the forecast cold weather has some kind of silver lining to it...even if it's a thin one.

Good news and better

Unlike the now shopworn joke, it was good news and better news last week when Belle Glade City Manager Robert R. Sanders said the state has issued a permanent operating permit for the city's sewage treatment plant and it's back to square one for a possible police officer union.

The permanent operating permit is something the city has been working toward for more than four years now. There was a moratorium on any new building for some time because the county health department wouldn't allow any new sewer connections and building has only recently begun to accelerate with the use of temporary operating permit connections.

Sanders said the permit is good through 1982 and the state has granted the city 100,000 gallons in new connections, which should relieve the building industry considerably, making further growth possible.

The city has had a housing shortage for some time and that is now being aggravated by a need for replacement housing on a major scale. The operating permit may help to relieve both situations as well as insure that any new businesses planned for the city can be safely brought along.

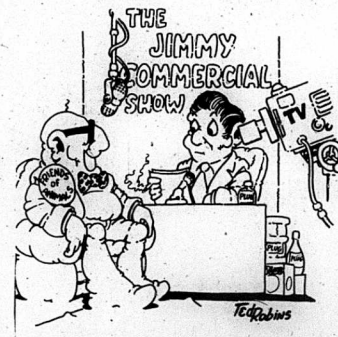

As far as the Palm Beach County Police Benevolent Association is concerned, we understand PERC (the state Public Employees Relations Commission) has ruled it hasn't been properly registered with the state and is therefore unqualified to represent local police officers.

We have for some time maintained there is little need for a union of that stripe in Belle Glade.

In a town this size, it shouldn't be too hard for the employees to make their wishes and needs known to the city commissioners without requiring someone from West Palm Beach or Miami or speak for them.

As we've said in the past, the commissioners would probably be in a more agreeable frame of mind talking to the officers they know anyway and wouldn't take the hard line they almost certainly would with a professional union negotiator.

"I believe that hunters destroy endangered species. I also believe in the tooth fairy, the Easter Bunny, Peter Pan and Santa Claus."

Letter to the Editor

Editor:

Attorney General Robert Shubin is doing it again. He's lost yet another legal battle in his political war on the condominium development industry.

Shubin had proposed new rules attacking "unconscionable" condominium recreation leases and wanted to apply them retroactively.

He's been told over and over again by competent legal authority he can't apply new rules to contracts already in existence. In spite of what he's been told, he says he'll appeal this ruling, too. More tax dollars down the drain.

Shubin is supposed to be Florida's chief legal officer. He should know the law and how to enforce it, not continually try to circumvent it.

When will he stop holding out false hope to condominium owners who signed valid recreation leases in good faith? The answer, of course, is when Shubin no longer is a candidate for governor.

Because he has no other book to hang his hat on.

This time it was the state's Division of Administrative Hearings telling Shubin - just as the courts have told him - he can't apply new standards to old contracts.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

I've been put down by experts and, God knows, this computer-based society we're living in nowadays seems to have a boundless determination to reduce everyone's name to a number and ego to zilch but it seems things are getting bigger and better all the time.

The list of precedents is damn near endless and everyone's got to have experienced most of them one time or another but I'm about ready to start doing something about it.

Like the next time I see someone and the secretary asks a saccharin-sweet voice, "May I ask who's calling," give the answer "Sure," followed by a long silence. I mean, what the heck, I guess I'm not on the approved list of callers, I don't get to talk to the Man?

"May I ask to what this is a reference?" "Sure, lady, if your boss wants you taken into his confidence. He's been fooling around with my wife and I just want to warn him to get out of town or face the real possibility of a slow death or maiming."

At least there's a comeback for those situations but what the heck do you do when you're placed on hold and left holding a muffled handset for the next 39 minutes?

Worse, what the heck do you do, besides upchucking, when you're put on hold with just the faintest selection of tone music to keep you company. Core the idea of the music supposed to be to make the wait more pleasant. It just gives me heartburn.

But the telephone is only one way people have of telling you you don't amount to hill of beans.

The U.S. Postal Service is a vehicle that's been run into the ground by businesses who are telling you, "Hey, Jack, we want your business-but we don't have time to find out who we're talking to-so whoever you are just come on-down-and-buy this garbage."

Which is why I never mailed addressed to "Occupant" that about the only way I know of getting back for the insult.

But this is where they're getting bigger and better with their put downs. Like the letter and there've been several in the past year, made up by computer so they look like business mail addressed to you personally but they're really not much better than the Occupant variety.

You know it's that kind when a letter comes across your desk addressed to the Belle Glade Herald and you open it and begin reading, "Dear Mrs. Herald." And that's about the time you find the little round file beside the desk.

Had a new variation the other day though that was worse than Occupant though. Got a catalog in advertising a sale for a major chain of department stores addressed to Dean Jones, current resident.

I may never do business with that outfit again and I'm already up to my eyeballs in debt to them from the business I've done on a couple of credit cards with them in the past.

My God, that's worse than the deal Art Buchwald wrote about when he said he went into the department store to buy something or other. He said the salesman was all enthused about talking to a real bonafide celebrity.

His enthusiasm took a definite downward plunge, however, when Buchwald tried to pay for his purchase with a personal check and didn't have a driver's license to tell the once-fawning clerk who he was.

It's gotten to the point we ain't American any more unless we have a driver's license, something originally intended only to prove to the arresting officer we had the state's permission to drive on the roads we helped build, to prove we are who we say we are.

Try inter-resting. Herr Jones! No papers, hein? Vorse half ways of dealing mit der likes of you. Kommen sie, bitte. To der concentration camp. Meet Igor der man mit der plan to find out who you really are. No driver's license, hein? Der rack will tell.

"Ah, so, you finally admit it, hein? Dein name ist really 264-66-1166, nicht wahr? Sehr gut, und don't you forget it, Herr Jones ist dead. Your name ist Herr 1166. Remember dot und don't ever try to cash a check again mitout a driver's license, even if you don't drive, or offend der heart!"

Charles Ward buys local supermarket

BELLE GLADE—Charles Ward, former Belle Glade resident who moved to Mississippi a year and a half ago, has announced the purchase of Case Rate Supermarket on Avenue B from Ed Browning. Ward is the brother of Bert Ward, local real estate broker and is formally the owner of White's Auto Store in Belle Glade.

He first came to Belle Glade in 1971 and opened White's, leaving for his native state of Mississippi to become active in real estate. He is 44 years old, married and the father of three children. One daughter is married and living in Jackson, but he expects his family to move back to Belle Glade shortly.

Browning has been in Belle Glade for 37 years, starting as a coach and athletic director for the Belle Glade High School. He then became the Pure Oil agent for the area and took over Case Rate in 1948.

During his administration, the supermarket has been remodeled three times and moved to its present location in 1965.

Browning will be acting in an advisory capacity for 30 days to Ward and plans to retire after that.

Frontage road for 27 is discussed

BELLE GLADE—In a public hearing Thursday night at the Holiday Inn in Belle Glade, the Department of Transportation heard 20 local residents say they didn't feel a frontage road on the west side of U.S. 27 would do much good.

Jim Zei, design engineer for the DOT of the Ft. Lauderdale office, said studies have been made showing heavy truck traffic on the road and told the residents the frontage road could siphon off some of that local truck traffic.

But many of the locals disagreed.

Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Ken Buckner noted the two-lane frontage road would have to go on the west side but as much or more can be argued on the east side, which would force trucks carrying cane to cross the four lanes of U.S. 27 to get to the frontage road. (The road is being four-laned from South Bay to south of SR 827 and the frontage road that was proposed would be the same length.)

Several residents were more concerned with conditions in SR 80 than on U.S. 27, but Zei said he knew nothing about this project. He did say, however, that if priority is given to one over the other, one project will have to slow down.

Commissioner Bill Bailey said it was his understanding a contract would be let on the SR 80 project in July and Marvin Unwin, chairman of the Canal Hazards Safety Committee, told the group right-of-way acquisition is now being carried out.

Zei said the project (four-laning of U.S. 27) would be completed from South Bay to Miami in the "neighborhood" of five years, "maybe a little more."

Zei said he would report to the DOT that there appeared to be little use for the service road.

ED BROWNING SHAKES HANDS WITH the new owner of Case Rate Supermarket of Belle Glade, Charles Ward (left). Ward will assume management of the supermarket Sunday. He is a former resident of Belle Glade and former owner of White's Auto who moved to Mississippi a year ago. Ward said the name of the business will be changed to Food Center Discount Supermarket.

Citizenship drive starts

SOUTH BAY—A United States Citizenship Drive organized by the Rev. Clifford C. Davis held its first meeting Saturday at the South Bay Recreation Center.

This meeting was the result of the concern of Rev. Davis, he said, regarding the large number of permanent alien residents in the Glades area.

Prior to putting his concern into action, he went about contacting people in the South Bay, Belle Glade and Pahokee area, asking if they were interested in becoming United States citizens. The response from the persons contacted was good.

Citizenship application forms have been secured through the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. These forms were issued to the people attending the meeting, with instructions and encouragement to go ahead and file their applications as soon as possible.

Instruction booklets were limited, but Rev. Davis volunteered to give whatever assistance possible to the applicants, regarding the execution of their applications.

The next meeting will be announced at a later date. All interested persons may contact Rev. Clifford C. Davis by calling 996-7709.

Wester-Shaw say vows in Belle Glade

BELLE GLADE—Miss Sheryl Marie Wester, daughter of Mrs. William T. Aspey of Belle Glade and Robert B. Wester of Gainesville, became the bride of George Elliott Shaw, Jr., son of Mrs. Bill Forfuson of Belle Glade and George E. Shaw of Fort Lauderdale in a double-ring ceremony on Sept. 24 at the Community United Methodist Church in Belle Glade. The Rev. Guldmar Blair officiated.

Mrs. Pat Stedham sang "The First Time Ever I Saw His Face," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Karen Corbin.

The church was banked in palms and the stage was centered with a white iron arch decorated with green similar. Twin baskets of white glads, fuji mums, mums and pompons flanked the arch. The kneeling bench and white aisle runner completed the garden style wedding.

Given in marriage by William Aspey, the bride wore a traditional gown of white bridal crepe with a short train. The empire bodice featured a high neckline with inserts of illusion outlined in lace and pearls. She wore a satin headpiece with a chapel length illusion veil. She carried a long cascade of sala leaves and stephanotis centered with three catylea orchids and laced with bridal satin ribbon.

Mrs. Sandra Richmond of West Palm Beach served as matron of honor. She wore a floor-length, yellow seranade satin gown with an empire waist, scoop neckline and short sleeves. She carried a cascade of white and yellow daisies, and yellow rosebuds backed with salal leaves. Mrs. Lori Shackelford of Belle Glade and Mrs. Debbie Figueroa of Gainesville served as bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to that of the honor attendant. They carried cascades of yellow daisies feathered with white carnations and green salal leaves.

Miss Lee Wester, sister of the bride from Belle Glade, and Miss Lisa Shaw, sister of the groom, also from Belle Glade, served as junior bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to that of the other attendants except with yellow floral print on a white background. They carried cascades of yellow daisies and white jack straw pompons with salal leaves. All the attendants wore matching floral headpieces.

Charles Daley of Fort Lauderdale was the best man and the groomsmen were Robert B. Welter, Jr., brother of the bride from Belle Glade, Jeffrey Shaw, brother of the groom from Fort Lauderdale, Dan Terhune from West Palm Beach and Tony Lesowski from Fort Lauderdale.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length kelly green empire waisted gown with long butterfly leaved of matching sheer. The mother of the groom wore a floor-length coral knit ensemble with a sheer tunic. They both wore cymbidium orchids.

The reception immediately following was held on the fourth floor of the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida office building. The cake table was draped with a lace cloth and held the four-tiered cake with white columns and topped with white satin bells. The buffet table was decorated with a white organza overskirt, an eight-taper candelabrum and floral decorations in yellow, white and green. Assisting in serving at the reception were Gail Spooner, Dorothy Graber, Thelma Norris, Betty Ray, Dianne Miller, Louise Zaccagnino, Alice Zacherl and Georgina Garza. Attending the bride's book was Ms. Mildred Brooks.

After a honeymoon in Fort Myers Beach, the couple is making their home at 24 S.E. Ave. Q Apt. 2 in Belle Glade.

Mrs. Arline gives program on Africa

PAHOKEE—The Pahokee Chapter of the United Methodist Women met on November 7th in the Church Parlor.

In the absence of president, Mrs. Majorie Hutton, vice president, Mrs. Carol Arline presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Inez Reeves opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Helen Davis led a devotional taken from the book of John 21, verses 15 through 19.

Carol Arline gave a program on the continent of Africa. Angola, located on the West Coast of Africa, was the main topic. Mrs. Marie Hendrix told of the World Gospel Mission. She stated that Lawson Stone, one time youth worker to the church, is now going to Africa to teach Bible classes in Kenya High school.

After the talk on Africa, Mrs. Hendrix gave a treasurers' report.

A motion was made that six subscriptions of Response magazine be sent to the president, vice president, and chairman of the Global Concern and one for each chairman of the different circles. Mrs. Alyce Tyson seconded the motion. The motion was voted and carried.

Mrs. Helen Davis, Christian Personhood chairman, reported that the Simonson Lair Circle would be responsible for the delivering of the church tape in December.

Mrs. Irene Bowe, Christian Personhood chairman for the upcoming year, asked that any names to be put on the Prayer Chain be turned in to her and also the names of those who want to be put on the list for the Church tape.

Mrs. Davis reported that the work on the Chapel was completed.

Young at Heart holds pot luck dinner

BELLE GLADE—The Young At Heart Club held its pot luck luncheon recently at the Community United Methodist Church in Jameson Hall. The attendance was a little less than usual due to several other meetings of civic and other organizations during that time.

About 50 senior citizens were present to enjoy the fun, food and fellowship under the direction of Mrs. Rada Bracken, president and Mrs. S.M. McAllister, program chairman.

A colorful program in the form of a skit was presented by a group of talented young people from the Student Council of Christian Day School. They were all dressed as pumpkins and this gave a very festive atmosphere to the occasion, in addition to the lively entertainment.

Dec. 1 will be the date of the next meeting and pot luck luncheon for the YAH to be held in Jameson Hall.

Gertrude Shirley Circle continues Bible lessons

PAHOKEE—The Gertrude Shirley Circle met November 8th at the home of Mrs. Frances Whiteside. The meeting was called to order and opened with prayer by chairman, Mrs. Inez Reeves. After the business meeting the lesson was presented by Mrs. Frances Whiteside, vice chairman. The lesson was a continuation of the study of the book of Ecclesiastes, chapter 7, 8 and 9. The meeting was closed with Circle prayer after which refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Mazella Brown. The next meeting, a Christmas party with a gift exchange, will be held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Lair, December 3, at 7:30 p.m.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Dr. E. C. Johnson wishes to express our deepest appreciation to all our friends who have done so much for us in this time of bereavement, by sending cards, flowers, donations, prayers and other expressions of sympathy. All have touched our hearts and made this time a little easier. We would especially like to thank Dr. Caesar Orduna, Dr. B.B. Fernandez, Dr. G.B. Walker, Bobby Shackford and the E.M.T.'s, Fabeke Police Department, and the Staff of Everglades Memorial Hospital. They responded and worked so diligently during the emergency. Also, we would like to express our gratitude to Rev. Ballard Wilson and Rev. Simmons who prayed with us during the night of our crisis.

In loving memory of our devoted husband and father, The family of Dr. E. C. Johnson

Garden Club activities are many

MEMBERS OF THE XI BETA GAMMA Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi and their husbands or guests enjoyed a trip aboard the Paddlewheel Queen in Ft. Lauderdale Saturday, Nov. 5. They dined and danced aboard the vessel while traveling up the Intercoastal Waterway. Those aboard included, from the left, Mrs. Nancy Carpenter, Mrs. Gene Connell, Lorenzo Connell, Mrs. Ruth McAllister, E. F. McAllister, Mrs. Margaret Drawdy, Howard Drawdy, Mrs. Dorothy Graber, Eddie Ribackci of Singer Island, Dr. Mendel Luce, Mrs. Dee Luce, and Milton Carpenter.

PAHOKEE—On Tuesday, November 15 at 10 a.m. the Pahokee Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting in the Everglades Federal Hostess Room.

Prior to the meeting, refreshments consisting of a variety of delicious cookies, coffee and coca cola were served by Mrs. Marjorie Mock and Mrs. Charlotte Walston. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Dorothy Williams, who led the group in reading the Conservation Pledge, the Garden Club Prayer and pledging allegiance to the flag.

After roll call and the reading of the minutes by secretary Mrs. Ilmae Lampl, the president announced the following:

1. Guided Tour of Agriculture to be conducted Nov. 28 beginning at 10 a.m. and leaving from Days Inn in South Bay. Members who want to go should notify Mrs. Dot Williams.

2. Christmas Open House on Dec. 20 at Mrs. Billie Shirley's home with Mrs. Esther Hundley in charge of decorations and Mrs. Irene Bove in charge of food. Details will be given later by telephone committee.

3. A Plant Sale and Sidewalk Cafe to be held on Nov. 29 beginning at 11 a.m. at the Everglades Federal Hostess Room and Patio.

In connection with this, Mrs. Ena Keen, general chairman, reminded members of their obligations and named Mrs. Margaret Wilkinson as chairman of the Sidewalk Cafe, Mrs. Marion Blech as chairman of baked goods, Mrs. Billie Shirley and Mrs. Martha McIntosh as chairman of Hanging Baskets, Mrs. Tina Elliott as chairman of Potted Plants, and Mrs. Dorothy Stanley as chairman of the White Elephant Sale.

President Mrs. Dorothy Williams recognized the following visitors from Pahokee: Mrs. Nellie Moss, Mrs. Sue Rozelle, Mrs. "Buttons" Hatten, and Mrs. Sandy Simmons.

From the Canal Point Garden Club, visitors were: Mrs. Cathy Smith, Mrs. Maggie Pope, Mrs. Grace Strayer, Mrs. Edith Summers, and Mrs. Pat Ligon.

Mrs. Mary Shea, District X Director of Travelers Palm Garden Club, spoke briefly on the work of garden clubs, affiliation with District, State, Deep South and National Garden Clubs, awards and our responsibility to challenge our young people to prepare for the future.

Mrs. Tina Elliott introduced Mrs. Gail Sorenson, nationally accredited Flower Show Judge, past president of Travelers Palm Garden Club of Jupiter and Tequesta, Past District X Director, who demonstrated and explained the making of Christmas ornaments from plants, weeds and fruit and the making of flowers from dried plants. She had a large, beautiful collection to show and gave the group many interesting ideas.

Final plans told for wedding

BELLE GLADE—Final plans have been announced for the upcoming wedding of Miss Charles Phelps and Mr. H.M. Valenzuela.

The vows will be spoken at the poolside of the Day's Inn in South Bay Friday, November 25 at 7:30 p.m. with the reception to follow at the Civic Center.

All friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

Rotarians hear Mrs. Wedgworth

BELLE GLADE—Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth of the Bicentennial Commission and the Glades Historical Society, told the Belle Glade Rotary Club Tuesday their organization is one of the oldest in the city and asked for Rotary help in planning and organizing a 50th birthday celebration for Belle Glade.

She gave some of the history of the Bicentennial Commission and the help of many citizens in the community gave the commission the impetus to erect the memorial statue to the victims of the 1926 hurricane and the Lawrence Will Museum.

The Belle Glade Rotary Club, she said, has numbered among its members the leaders of the community and the club can do much to help make the celebration a success.

"Let's all get in the birthday mood," she urged the Rotarians. Initial plans for the celebration have been made by the commission, which was asked to plan the "birthday party" by the city commission.

In other Rotary news, tickets for the Belle Glade Annual Rotary Turkey Shoot are still being sold by members of the club.

The shoot will be held December

15 and 16 behind Mixson's Florist and a grand prize, a 22 magnum, will be given away.

Tickets are $2 each and will be available at the gate as well as from members.

Fritz Stein, co-chairman of the shoot, said plans are being made for youngsters to participate as well.

Next week, the guest speaker for the Rotary Club will be Judge Don Adams.

Pahokee Lions are driving for new, old members

PAHOKEE—The Pahokee Lion's Club is initiating a membership drive, as a reorganization project, to get past and prospective members involved in Lions activities.

The Lion's club meets every Tuesday from 12:15 p.m. until 1 p.m. at the Lion's building, 1381 East Main Street.

The following list is composed of Pahokee residents who are former lions. Club President Glenn Brower searched old records to come up with the list, but said he is sure there are others whom he could not locate in the records. "The Pahokee Lions have always been doers," Brower said. "The club today wants these members back; motion carried, and signed Glenn Brower, president."

Fieldworker wages are considered

Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland has announced that he intends to establish minimum wage rates for sugarcane and sugarcane fieldworkers in carrying out the sugar price support program authorized by the Food and Agriculture Act of 1977.

Before determining the terms and conditions of the minimum wage requirements, comments are being invited from agricultural workers, representatives of labor, producers of sugarcane and sugarcane, and other interested persons. Comments should be mailed to the Sugar Branch, Procurement and Sales Division, ASOS-USDA Room 36741, South Bldg., P.O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20013, and must be received by November 21 to be assured of consideration.

The notice of the proposed determination of minimum wage rates for sugarcane fieldworkers, which is scheduled for publication in the Federal Register points out that the Food and Agriculture Act of 1977 provides no guidance or standards to the Secretary in establishing the wage rates. The Department of Agriculture formerly established the wage rates. The Department of Agriculture formerly established minimum wage rates for sugarcane fieldworkers under the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended. That Act expired December 31, 1974.

The purpose of the Sugar Act "Fair Wage" provision was for producers to share with their field workers on a fair and reasonable basis the income received from the sale of sugarcane or sugarcane. However, the Sugar Act was also designed in such a way as to assure consistently remunerative prices to producers through its fair price provisions. Department officials said the price support loan program now being placed into effect does not have a parallel principle. Nevertheless, the Department intends to establish wage rates which will result in rates that, as nearly as possible, will be "fair" to the worker and "reasonable" to the producer.

The Department is requesting that all respondents to the invitation for comments keep all of the issues in mind when making specific recommendations on the level of minimum wage rates, the operations to be covered, worker classifications, and wage rate differentials among worker classifications. Information is also being sought on the hourly or piecework rates now prevailing for workers in sugarcane and sugarcane operations, other farming operations, and nearby industrial enterprises.

CURTIS THOMPSON JR. was presented the District Award of Merit last Thursday evening at the annual Glades District Awards Banquet held at the Community United Methodist Church. Making the presentation, the highest which can be offered at the district level, is outgoing District Chairman Tom Pierson while Mrs. Thompson, a Troop Committee Member for Troop 622 in her own right, looks on. Thompson has been active in local scouting for the past ten years, on both the troop and district level.

Association for Retarded Citizens

Membership drive underway

BELLE GLADE-November is Mental Retardation Month and members of the newly chartered Glades-Area Association for Retarded Citizens will meet at 8 p.m. tonight in the parish hall of St. John's Episcopal Church to elect officers and kick off a membership drive.

This will be the second membership drive to be undertaken by the local organization and the nominating committee has moved to have last year's officers serve repeat terms.

Those officers are President Charles Roessing, Vice President Earlyne Harrell, Secretary Lelia Shaw and Treasurer Shari Lohman, all of whom served during the year the GAARC was being officially formed.

Older board members are Sandy Boots, the Rev. Dan Casslebury, Evelyn Johnson, Eileen Roessing, Sandra Chamblee, Mary Campbell and the Rev. Charles Robinson. New board members appointed at the October Board meeting were Mrs. Carol Zumpf and Dr. Martha Valiant.

GAARC Program Developer Tricia Graves said some of the children who have been clients of the GAARC center will sing before the meeting gets underway.

The local effort began with a meeting in August 1976, when members of the Glades community decided the area should have its own association instead of being dependent upon the county organization in West Palm Beach.

The GAARC was chartered in June. Miss Graves, who has acted as coordinator for the local program for more than a year, said she hopes "in the next year to reach as many individuals as possible and make these needs (of retarded persons in the community) known."

"I will be glad to speak to any group concerning the ARC and its role in the community," Miss Graves said. "They may contact me by phoning 996-4335 or writing to GAARC, P.O. Box 95, Belle Glade, 33430."

Managers, appraisers will meet

The fall meeting of the Florida Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers will hold their fall meeting in Clewiston this week with headquarters at the Clewiston Inn.

The two day meeting will get underway with registration Thursday morning at 8:30. T. H. Jones, Jr., Clewiston vice president of the organization, will call the meeting to order and Mayor Nick Smith will extend an official welcome.

Don Walsh, director of public relations for the Florida Sugar Cane League, is program chairman.

The program will include the showing of "Sugar Country," talks by Dr. Joseph R. Orsenigo, director agricultural research FSCL, environmental programs by William D. Arlington on air and by Douglas Bourne on water, both FSCL staff members; the noon luncheon address by Joyn B. Boy, president United States Sugar Corporation; Joe Clayton, agricultural engineer USDA sugar cane production and harvesting machinery; Greg A. Carlton, administrative assistant USSC cattle operations; Ray Burgess, Hendry County Extension agent; Stan Winn, South Florida Water Management District. The banquet speaker Thursday evening will be Ray Liberti, executive director Planning, Zoning and Building Department, Palm Beach county.

The Friday program will include a tour of mechanical and hand harvesting; water management facilities, raw sugar mill, refinery, research, housing and pure bred cattle operations.

Environmentalists protest USSC use

State environmental officials Friday urged Gov. Reubin Askew and the Cabinet to review a controversial South Florida Water Management District decision allowing U.S. Sugar Corp. to turn 11,520 acres of Hendry County into grazing land.

The recommendation by the Department of Environmental Regulation (DER) will be considered at the Nov. 22 Cabinet meeting. If the Cabinet agrees to the review, further hearings would be scheduled on whether to revoke the permit or modify it and require U.S. Sugar to take certain precautions to protect the environment.

A group of private environmental organizations protested the permit.

David Gluckman, a lawyer for the Florida Audubon Society, said the environmentalists don't want to stop the project. He said they want the state to require U.S. Sugar establish retention ponds or marshes in an effort to purify drainage runoff before dumping it into canals that empty into Everglades conservation areas.

Nutrients, such as cattle wastes and fertilizers, already are changing the complexion of the Everglades ecology, he said.

Other organizations protesting the permit are the Tropical Audubon Society, Friends of the Everglades, Izak Walton League of the Florida Keys, Audubon Society of the Everglades and Coalition for Water, Inc.

The permit allows U.S. Sugar to construct canals and take other steps to drain the land, which previously was unimproved pasture and marshes. The firm also would be able to pump water back onto the land during dry seasons. The environmental groups say the district failed to take environmental factors into consideration in granting the permit.

In recommending the review, DER officials said the environmentalists raised important questions regarding the district's compliance with the state Water Resources Plan.

U.S. Sugar has asked the Cabinet to throw out the review request, contending it was not filed on time and that the Cabinet does not have the authority to alter the permit, contentious disputed by DER.

Thirty will die in state accidents

Traffic accidents will claim the lives of 30 people in Florida during the Thanksgiving holiday period unless motorists and pedestrians put forth an extra effort to prevent them the Florida Highway Patrol said today.

The countdown begins at 6:00 p.m. Wednesday, November 23 and ends midnight, Sunday, November 27," according to Colonel Eldridge Beach, director of the Patrol.

Last year, 33 traffic fatalities were recorded during the 102 hour period.

The Thanksgiving holiday period is one of the heaviest traffic holidays of the year and highways will be jammed with motorists headed for visits with friends and relatives to enjoy the traditional "turkey and trimmings."

Profile in Business

Rupert Mock is the president of the Bank of Pahokee and has been since January, 1962. He has worked there since March 19, 1931. The Bank of Pahokee is the oldest bank in Palm Beach County. It has been open since 1922, and when all other banks in the county closed during the 1930's, the Bank of Pahokee remained open.

The Bank of Pahokee is a full service bank with a reputation of being a good liquid bank.

As president of the bank, Mock sees that the Board of Directors' policies are carried out.

Mock was born in South Georgia, but moved here in the spring of 1928. He attended school at Canal Point High School and graduated in Arcadia.

After graduation, he worked at the Palm Service Station for one year and then started work at the bank.

When Mock began at the bank, there were only three employees. He has worked in all departments there. By starting at the bottom, he learned all phases of the bank, and this has helped him tremendously in his role as president.

Mock considers dealing with people the most important and fun part of his job. He says that he loves people, and it makes him feel good to see someone the bank has helped come in.

As far as he is concerned, this is what the bank is all about. He doesn't consider himself a banker, but does consider himself a good personal relations man. Most feel that he is good at both.

Mock's hobbies include hunting and fishing, and he has a love for all sports. Another interesting hobby of his is raising quail.

The Mocks recently returned from a vacation to California, where they really enjoyed.

Mock is one of the most interesting people in the Glades, and one can understand the success of the bank. With dedication such as his, plus his warmth and gift of conversation, it is felt that the Bank of Pahokee will always be a good place for pleasurable banking.

Christian Comments

By Bill Anderson
Pastor First Baptist Church of South Bay

The very presence of Jesus among men who were broken and wasted by sickness and disease was proclaimed as a new hope to those that had become hopeless.

In the healing of the woman with the issue of blood, power flowed from Jesus to heal her affliction. While Matthew treats this as an ordinary miracle in which Jesus consciously exercised his healing power, both Mark and Luke represent it as a miracle in which the woman, unknown to Jesus, drew upon His healing power, of which He became conscious. He became aware of a body change within Himself.

This woman in need had gone from doctor to doctor to be healed.

However, she still suffered at their hands. She had sought all that she had, and still she grew worse. There are too many times when man turns to God after all else fails. Why must God be the last resort?

In Joshua 7:1-9, Joshua fell down and cried out to God and asked why God brought them to the wilderness to die. In verse 10 God told Joshua to "stand up" and act like a man. "There is sin in your camp." If they wanted help, they would have to help themselves. Like the children of Israel and the woman with the bleeding, we need to reach out to Jesus for help.

The key to this healing is found in verse 34, "Your faith has cured you." Faith is the substance by which man can find Salvation; man must live with the daily faith that God will sustain him.

Just as the afflicted woman reached out to touch Jesus, we can reach out and touch Him. However, we must take the initiative; as Jesus stands at the door and knocks, we must let Him in.

God Bless You All!
Bill

Old Fashion Day is Sunday at Church

BELLE GLADE—"Old Fashioned Day" will be observed Sunday at the Church of God of Belle Glade at 301 S.E. Ave. E with the theme, "Thanksgiving Unto God" being carried out with old fashioned dresses being worn by the women and blue collar working clothes by the men.

Sunday School will begin at 10 a.m. and morning worship will commence at 11 a.m.

Special singing will be provided by the Melody Three and the Miller Trio and a message will be delivered by the pastor, the Rev. Roy C. Miller.

The public is invited by Rev. Miller to bring basket dinners and join the dinner on the grounds. He said there would be no afternoon service, but the Old Fashioned Service would carry through the evening service.

Mental Health Committee to meet today

BELLE GLADE—Members of the Glades Steering Committee of the Community Mental Health Center will hold their monthly meeting at 12:15 p.m. today at the Glades Branch at 300 W. Canal St., South Bay.

"We will not be meeting with the Mental Health Board Nine Planning Committee as previously discussed," Director Jean Cogar said, "since the date for the meeting of the Planning Committee has been changed to Thursday, Dec. 8. However, Ms. Jenny Elliott has indicated she will be attending our meeting."

Miss Cogar said lunch will be served and if anyone needs transportation, they can contact her at 996-2979.

LONGING

To every child there comes a time when they begin to wonder... Where did I come from? Who made the trees? Who made the mountains?

EVERYONE has a desire to know their creator.

"O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee; my soul thirsteth for thee..."

This longing for knowledge of God should be satisfied at an early age.

"Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Plan NOW to attend church with your family.

©Coleman Adv. Ser.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

This message is sponsored by these community minded businesses who remind you to attend the church of your choice.

One Way

has been told the department had no one to spare, "but I understand you're going to be hiring three new officers for walking beats. It seems to me they could carry chalk along with them with little trouble."

Another speaker protesting the one-wayway was Charles Ward, a former Belle Glade businessman moving back to town to take over ownership of Caserate Grocery on Avenue B. Ward said he thinks the move will hurt his business and questioned how easy it would be to revert to the present status if the one-waying is accomplished and isn't seen to be working out.

Reid White, who said he and his father have been in business on Avenue A for the past 25 years, said he hasn't noticed any problems with the streets the way they now are. "We want to go on record," he said, "as business partners opposed to the one-waying of Avenue A."

Another merchant speaking out against the proposal was Milton Rader, who said that while he doesn't have a business further west on Avenue A and felt the change would hurt the business.

"I've been here for 25 years," Rader said, "and I've been against one-way streets for 25 years and all the merchants have been against it for 25 years. Anyone for the plan isn't a merchant there."

"I've never had anyone show me how one-waying will help me," he said.

Judge Adams speaks at GCHS

BELLE GLADE—Glades Central High School is presently in the midst of celebrating a week of activities commemorating American Education Week, Nov. 14 through 18.

The activities began with an open house program held Monday evening with the Honorable Judge Don Adams speaking before a crowd of parents, teachers and students.

Judge Adams spoke to the audience about the American Legal system and how we take advantage of it in our own community. Judge Adams told the audience that by visiting the County Courthouse or by having a court case come to the classroom, there is much that can be learned.

After Judge Adams' speech, the Raiders Rocks, under the direction of Mrs. M. Locke, presented the audience with several musical selections with dance routines.

Following the open house program held in the gymnasium, they disbursed to the library to receive students' SAT test results and attend a fashion show coordinated by Miss Danielle, and refreshments.

Parents were also invited to attend several exhibits and demonstrations located throughout the school.

Tuesday was set aside as grand parents' day, when all grandparents were invited out to see what their grandchildren are into.

Wednesday is Businessmen's Day, with a luncheon highlighting the event.

Thursday will be Parents' Day, when parents are invited out to attend classes with their children.

Friday will be students' appreciation day with students taking over the responsibilities of teaching classes.

The American Education Week observance will close out Friday evening when the Raiders football team takes on the Pahokee Blue Devils in the annual rivalry between the two schools.

Dawn Byrd, Monica Federick, Chandra Stevenson and Terry Bailey talk to two of the puppets used to help celebrate Children's Book Week at the Library

GCHS hosts band meet

BELLE GLADE—Glades Central High School will host 19 bands at 6:30 p.m. Saturday when the District 12 Florida Bandmasters Association Marching Contest.

Willie Pyrom, director of the Glades Central Marching Machine Band, said the bands will range in size from the 45-member Jupiter band to the 302-member John I. Leonard marching unit.

The evening will begin with an inspection of the bands at 6 p.m., followed by the competition. Admission will be $2 at the gate. The public is welcome to come support their local high school bands, including area bands such as Glades Day School and Pahokee High.

PBA Ball is Saturday

BELLE GLADE—Members of the Belle Glade Police Benevolent Association will hold their only fund-raising event of the year Saturday night when the public is invited to attend the Policeman's Ball, which gets underway at 10 p.m. at the Belle Glade Elks Lodge.

PBA Dance Chairman Alida Gill said the dress for the ball this year will be casual, "very casual, with jeans or whatever," and music would be supplied by Hughie Burns and The County Line.

This year's theme will be "Harvest Time," Mrs. Gill said. She said there will be door prizes and a mid-night buffet for the BYOB affair.

Tickets are $20 per couple and Mrs. Gill said they can be purchased either at the Police Department or at the door. Proceeds from the dance will go toward buying insurance for members.

He said the task force has already gathered data in the Tallahassee, Gainesville, Deland, Altamonte, Hastings, South Dade, Homestead and Hardee County areas. The group has one more area, in Apopka, to visit before releasing its findings to a report.

The task force, which is interested in all phases of agriculture in relation to the church, is made up of six ministers, two laymen and five laywomen.

Children's Book Week is celebrated at the library

The Belle Glade Municipal Library is celebrating Children's Book Week (November 14-20) with productions of a puppet show entitled "Monster Magic."

Pre-school and elementary classes will be visiting the library throughout the week to see the confrontations of a little girl with "Jaws", "Bigfoot", and a bug-eyed monster while in search of her father. The library staff expects to give twenty performances before an average audience of fifty children.

Children's Book Week is an annual event sponsored by the Children's Book Council. The Council seeks to promote greater interest in the use of children's books through involvement with book-sellers, schools and libraries.

Want to cut down on your electric bill? Check your plumbing.

That's right. Your plumbing. And you can start with your hot water heater. Next to air-conditioning, it's often the second biggest user of electricity in the home.

But its cost can be substantially reduced. By simply adjusting the setting on your water heater thermostat. To 130 degrees. Or, if you have a large family or dishwasher, place the setting at 140. Any higher and you're probably wasting money.

If you insulate your water heater with a blanket of fiberglass, you could save even more. Up to 75¢ a month. It may not sound like much, but every little bit helps. And if you're going on a trip, turn your water heater off until you return. It'll save money. Even if you're away for only three or four days.

(One word of caution, however: before you do anything to your hot water heater, be sure to disconnect the circuit breaker. If necessary, we even suggest you call a serviceman.)

Another possible drain on your electric bill are leaks in your hot water system. A leaky hot water faucet, for example, can cost you upwards of two dollars a month. So, if you see a drippy faucet, replace the washers. The savings could be quite significant.

Some other helpful hints? Take showers instead of baths. A bath uses twice as much water as a shower. And when you shave, or rinse the dishes, don't let the hot water run. You could be pouring a lot of water down the drain. What's more, if you have to replace your shower heads, install flow restrictors to reduce the rate of water flow.

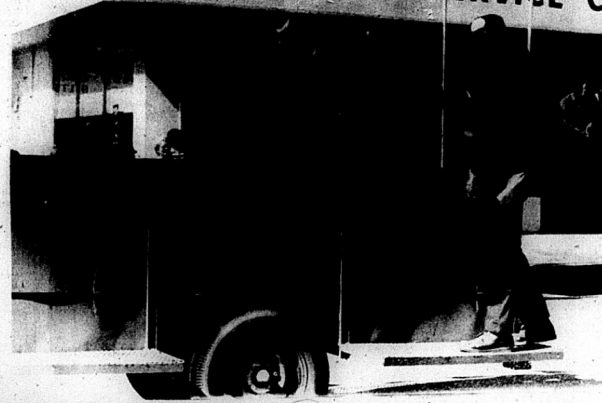

Finally, you can recover wasted heat by utilizing the hot refrigerant gas from the air-conditioner compressor to heat the water. This new technique could eliminate water heating altogether in the summer. But be sure to consult a licensed air-conditioning contractor.

If you'd like some more money saving ideas, ask for our folder "How to Save Money on Your Electric Bill." It's free. At all FPL offices.

GCI employees graduate

The Department of Offender Rehabilitation announced last week that Glades Correctional Institution employees, Donald Mann, Charles Williams, and John Wilson, recently participated in the Correctional Training Institute at Raiford.

This is the 18th CTI group to enroll in the minimum standard curriculum, which is required by law. The Training Institute program is taught in conjunction with Lake City Community College, and the graduates earn nine semester credits for successfully completing the full time, 160 hour course.

The program includes instruction in the Criminal Justice System, Legal Aspects of Corrections, Operational Procedures, Principles of Supervision, Human Relations and Technical Training Skills which include Firearms, First Aid and Fire Fighting Techniques.

The Correctional Training Institute was certified by the Florida Correctional Standard Council (CSC) in May, 1976, as a training center for correctional personnel. The Institute was empowered by the Legislature in 1974 to establish minimum standards for the certification of correctional officers and training centers.

The curriculum of training is designed to intensify the exposure of the officer and to develop him professionally. It is anticipated that the training program will help materialize the promise of a modern correctional system.

The participants will continue their training with an additional 160 hours taught by regional instructors at GCI, on an in-service basis.

Garden club making plans

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade Garden Club met recently at the home of Mrs. George Hudspeth on Indian Mound way. Mrs. S. M. McAllister, president of the club, gave the invocation with a special prayer for club members who were ill and for community families who were in need of spiritual strength at this time. The club voted to support the Clewiston Garden Club by attending their tea to be held at 3 p.m. Nov. 17 in Clewiston at the Methodist Church there.

Support of the City of Belle Glade's 50th Anniversary to be held April 8 is in the planning stages with a committee appointed to plan the project, and to follow through with the arrangements.

Many other programs and projects are in the planning stages making this one of the busiest years ever for the Garden Club.

The annual Christmas party for the group will be held Dec. 8 at the First Baptist Church. This will be a covered dish supper with the turkey and dressing to be made by

Xi beta gamma sorority meets

BELLE GLADE—Members of the Xi Beta Gamma Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Nancy Carpenter for the regular meeting Tuesday, November 6. Plans are being made by members of the sorority for Christmas, including donations for various charities and a Christmas dinner party for members and their husbands and guests to be held December 17.

A very interesting program was presented by Gene Connell depicting the life of Queen Victoria. Delicious refreshments were served by Nancy Carpenter to the following members: Mary John, Dee Luce, Dot Graber, Marie Battle, Ruth-McAllister, Margaret Baker, Gene Connell, Virginia Anderson, and Margaret Drawdy.

Benefit fashion show held at Breakers

The fifth annual luncheon fashion show and art auction to benefit the Nelle Smith Residence for Girls will be held at the Breakers on Saturday. The fashion show will feature clothing worn by professional models from 14 area stores. The theme is "Living Together, Growing Together - A Family Affair," and the style show will include clothes for all members of the family.

The commentator for the fashion show will be Janice Haney, Director of Janice Haney Models. According to Clark Kolman, Chairman of the Nelle Smith Luncheon Fashion Show Committee, 500 people are expected to attend.

Before the luncheon fashion show begins, there will be an art auction of over 150 items. Many are ceramics that were made by the members who support the Nelle Smith Residence. Other articles were donated by professional artists and retail merchants.

Many of the items to be auctioned would make unusual and creative Christmas gifts. They will be on display in the Breakers Mediterranean Ballroom beginning at 11 a.m. In this silent auction, the current highest bid will be listed in front of each item. Final bids will be accepted at 12:30 p.m. When the bidding is closed, the luncheon will begin in the Venetian Ballroom.

There also will be more than 50 doorprizes awarded. Many stores and restaurants have contributed gift certificates and merchandise. At each table, someone will win the centerpiece. The ceramic planters were made by supporters of the Nelle Smith Residence and the plants were donated by the North Palm Beach Garden Club.

Tickets for the luncheon fashion show are $15. For reservations call 996-5511 ext. 72, Cherie Crist. Tickets also may be purchased at the Berry Bucket, 601-A Northlake Blvd., North Palm Beach.

The Nelle Smith Residence is a nonprofit, charitable home for girls ages 13 to 18. The home opened in December 1970 as the first of its type in Florida. It is supported entirely through private, tax deductible contributions. The annual luncheon fashion show is the main fund raising function for the Residence.

The girls in the Nelle Smith Residence are the victims of variety of family and social problems. The Residence offers them the chance to live as a large family with each girl having rotating chores and responsibilities. The program is rehabilitative and combines a close loving family environment and therapy.

Stores represented in the fashion show are Saks-Fifth Avenue, The Cotton Shop, Francis Brewster, Harold Grant, Stanley Nelson Boutique, Mary O'Rourke, Jeans, Etc., clothes 'n Things, Francine, Kiddie Kastle, Cheenu, Expressions, The Ren Hen and Caroline's Originals working close together.

Hendrix speaks at open house

BELLE GLADE—Speaking before a crowd of approximately 200, Daniel W. Hendrix told teachers and parents of students of Lake Shore Middle School that they had "a great principal, great teachers and great parents."

Mr. Hendrix, a Palm Beach Junior College mathematics instructor and Palm Beach County School Board member, was the featured guest speaker for the school's fall open house.

Mrs. Barbara Knight, chairman of the Parents Advisory Committee, served as Mistress of Ceremony.

Several Lake Shore Middle School students presented songs and readings for the audience. Dr. Kenneth Loveless, principal, introduced the school's staff and explained to the audience the new team teaching concept in force at Lake Shore Middle School this year.

Dr. Loveless said each team consists of five team members, with team members and students working close together.

Game Friday night determines championship

Gators dump Florida Air; Terriers next

BELLE GLADE The Glades Day School Gators advanced their record to 7-2 in an easy victory over Florida Air in Melbourne Friday and tomorrow night, take on the Moore Haven Terriers to determine the division championship.

The 42-8 rout of Florida Air was pretty much expected as the Melbourne team dropped to a 1-8 record for the season. The lone game Florida Air won snapped a 33 game losing streak over the past several seasons.

"They just didn't have much," said head coach Byron Walker in talking of the game. "We really didn't expect them to."

The first quarter saw no scoring but in the second, Elmer Miller rammed 12 yards for the first Gator touchdown and quarterback Tommy Duda passed 44 yards to Winston Byrd for the second.

Kenny Buckner tacked on both extra points.

Florida's only score of the game came on an intercepted pass and a 49-yard return with a two-point conversion following. At the half, the game really wasn't in doubt, even though the Gators led by only six points.

In the third quarter, Byrd made his second touchdown of the evening on a two-yard run followed by a Duda to Jon Scruggs pass good for two yards and the second touchdown of the quarter. Buckner kicked both extra points, putting the game out of reach.

In the fourth quarter, the Gators again moved at will with Byrd scoring once more from the 15 and Quisque Echave rambling 34 yards to wind up the game. Again, Buckner was on target with his extra point kicks.

Byrd was the hero of the game, said Walker, scoring three times and carrying the ball 135 yards on nine attempts. He also made six unassisted tackles (four were quarterback sacks) and four assists.

Elmer Miller started at fullback and carried 38 yards on six carries as regular fullback Kenny Buckner suffered a separated shoulder last week and won't be able to fulfill his duties there for twelve more days. It didn't affect his "footpower", however.

Quarterback Tommy Duda completed five of eight passes for 138 yards and two touchdowns and suffered one interception. His brother Sam played the fourth quarter of the game in his position.

On defense, Kenny Strickland led the Gators with ten tackles and three assists followed by Bruce Sweet with six and five.

Echave made one interception and Howard Ayres and Basil Markham each recovered a fumble. Another turnover was contributed by Steve Richie, who intercepted a Florida Air pass.

But it wasn't the game that is now over the Gators say they are looking forward to. It's the game coming up tomorrow night at 6:00 at Gator Stadium.

"We've got every intention of winning," said Coach Walker. "We'll be fired up, but so will Moore Haven. The team that wants it the most will be the one to get it."

What he is talking about is the district championship and the game Friday will determine the head team in the five-member district.

Only one of three things can happen to the district championship Friday night: Glades Day can emerge the winner; Moore Haven can emerge the winner; or there can be a three-way tie between Glades Day, Gold Coast and Moore Haven for the championship.

The one most likely is that the Gators will go undefeated in district play and wind up in first place. But if they are somehow defeated by the 4-5 Terriers, there could be the three-way tie. And if Westminster beats Gold Coast on Saturday, the Terriers could be the champions if they beat the Gators.

So the district championship is going right down to the wire.

Provided the Gators win, their next game will be a district playoff November 25 in Belle Glade against Palmer Prep.

Facing the Gators tomorrow night, the Terrier have one outstanding player in Chris Corbitt, a receiver who has averaged 20 yards a catch this year. The Terrier quarterback, Andrew Tobias, however, is leading the area in tossing interceptions and rounding out the leaders on the Moore Haven squad are Bruce Ball, Dale Platt and John Witt, who contribute to its healthy defense.

Last year, the Terriers posted a dismal 0-10 season, scoring only seven points, but a change of coaches this year found them in better position. They have a 2-1 district record to the Gators' 8-0.

Coach Walker says he will stick to his basic offense and defense which has proven successful all year.

And as many of the Gator players have been saying all year, they're looking forward to Moore Haven, who they consider one of their main rivals.

BOAT RACERS GET OFF to a flying start in the annual Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce Regatta Saturday. Some 38 racers took part in the marathon races on the Rim Canal and this was the start of a one-hour race over the four mile course.

Sports

Junior Raiders snap Pahokee JV streak

BELLE GLADE—The Glades Central junior varsity Raiders racked up a total offense of 342 yards last Thursday night, with two runners picking up more than 100 yards each, to hand the junior varsity Pahokee Blue Devils their first loss of the season, 28-20.

Freshman fullback Greg Bain slammed through the Blue Devil defense for 130 yards, building his average rushing to 120 yards per game, according to Raider coach Graham Frost.

But if Bain picked up more yardage, running back, Carl Harper still ran for 101 yards and managed to pick up two touchdowns to boot. Both Harper and Bain will be playing Pahokee again Friday night as they move up to the Raider varsity for the last game of the season.

Gregory Beckford also managed to run for 40 yards and a touchdown. The other TD was scored on a pass from quarterback Reginald Jernigan, who connected on 55 percent of his passes for a total aerial attack of 100 yards.

Wilford Morgan kicked all four extra points and also led the Junior Raider defense with 17 tackles, one pass block and a fumble recovery. Nathaniel Stinson followed Morgan's lead by making 13 tackles and blocking two passes. Defensive tackles Mackie Lee Davis and Arthur Thomas accounted for 4 total of 23 tackles and blocked three passes while defensive end David Milton raked up ten tackles.

Safety Jessie Hester made nine tackles, broke up one pass and made one pass interception. Cornerback Dwayne Jackson made three tackles, an interception and broke up one pass play.

The win over Pahokee gave the Junior Raiders a season record of 5-3 and, Frost noted, one of those losses, against Palm Beach Gardens, came in the last 30 seconds of the game while the other two, both against Fort Pierce Central, were in overtime before the contests were decided.

—Both Gardens and Fort Pierce are 4-AAAA schools.

Following the game, the junior varsity squad celebrated with a get-together in the Annex cafeteria.

Pahokee bows to Newman 14-3

PAHOKEE—In a cold weather defensive battle, Cardinal Newman and Pahokee were both held to little scoring in Friday night's football game, but the crusaders broke loose with a 14-3 victory.

The Blue Devils, who have only one more game to play in the regular season, that being against Glades Central tomorrow night, bowed to their fifth loss. But the Devils still have a November 25 date on Lair Field for the Class 2A district playoff.

Cardinal Newman showed the first strong defensive effort when they held the Blue Devils on a fourth down, needing one yard for a first. Taking over at their own 49 yard line, the Crusaders capitalized on the same fourth down and one yard to go situation, scoring their first touchdown. The extra point was good, putting the score at 7-0.

Later in the first quarter, the Devils' defense stopped the Crusades at the 28 yard line, keeping them from a four yard gain needed for a first down. The defense also came through with a 12 yard setback of Newman.

During the second quarter, Newman grabbed an interception, but the Devils kept them from scoring. Several plays later, the Crusaders, who were only a few yards short of a touchdown could not break through the Blue Devil defense line.

Still in the second quarter, Devil quarterback Ronnie Osborne's 15 yard shotgun scramble started a Pahokee drive. Samuel Pompey took a handoff from Osborne and shot through for a 25

Glades Central wins, to take on Pahokee Friday

BELLE GLADE—The Glades Central Raiders' 13-6 win over North Shore raised hopes they could chalk up their first winning season in three years if they come out ahead in the annual scrap with Pahokee.

A victory over the Blue Devils (they meet at 8 p.m. Friday night) in Raider stadium) would give the Raiders a 5-4 season, their best since Al Werneke coached the 1974 team to a 9-0-1 regular season and into the regional championship game where they lost to Chaminade.

Raider Coach Willie McDonald's first two years as head mentor netted a 5-5 season record in 1975 and a 1-9 season last year. The Raiders only have a nine-game season this year since their first scheduled opponent cancelled.

The North Shore win last Friday, which came when the Raiders came from behind to score twice in the third quarter and stave off a last minute attack, gave Glades Central its first Suncoast West Conference victory in two years. A win over Pahokee would provide their second.

The first real excitement in the game came late in the first quarter when they thought they'd drawn first blood on a 29-yard pass play from David Jones to Jeff Henry. Henry went into the end zone and at least one official threw up his arms in the touchdown signal but an offensive holding penalty back at the line of scrimmage brought the ball back out to the North Shore 44 yard line.

Even before that, however, Glades Central was hurt when nose guard Anthony "Hawg" Jones was taken out of the game with a dislocated knee. McDonald said the senior lineman made four tackles before being injured but he won't be playing against Pahokee.

The first score that counted came with four minutes left in the half and was set up by a Glades Central punt from the Raider 12-yard line to their own 48. North Shore carried the ball the 48 yards in eight plays to score. A conversion pass attempt failed and they led, 6-0.

It wasn't until midway through the third quarter that the Raiders managed to post points on the scoreboard but when they did, it was on the big play with a long strike.

North Shore had managed to move the ball from their own 43 to the Glades Central 40 on the strength of a penalty and seven plays before they ran out of steam and punted to the Raider 20, where a flag pushed it to the Glades Central 15 before play could begin.

Quarterback Terry Hammon, who was replacing starting quarterback David Jones after Jones' eye was injured, started off the action with a 24-yard pass play to Ollie Shepard at the 38, made one incomplete pass before the ball was moved to the 44 on a penalty against North Shore, then threw a 56-yard bomb to Willie Williams, who scampered into the end zone to tie the score.

The point after touchdown was good and the Raiders took the lead, 7-6 with 5:58 left in the period. The Raiders' second strike came quickly and was set up when Randy Burden recovered a North Shore fumble on the 30 and ran back to the Mustang 23 before being stopped.

Hammon took the snap from center, and pitched out to David Robinson near the North Shore 28 and Robinson raced around right end to score again. The PAT was wide and the final score of 13-6 was made with 4:35 left in the third period.

The Raider defense weathered three attacks as the Mustangs hammered out long drives in the rest of the third quarter and the final period of play, holding the first time after North Shore had moved the ball from the Mustang 13-yard line to the Glades Central 12. The ball went over on downs at the Raider 14 after Don Andrews managed to sack the Mustang quarterback two yards deep.

With 5:31 left in the game, the Raider offense coughed up the ball on a punt to the North Shore 39 yard line after losing four yards on a run and gaining nothing through the air.

The Mustangs came back strong and chewed up yardage and time with a drive that ended on the

THE RAIDERS DEFENSE SHOWS the type of standout action performed all Friday night as tacklers close in on this Northshore runner, refusing a chance to lateral the ball away to his teammate for further yardage. The defenders stopped the Mustangs cold with yards to spare on three different drives late in the game as the Raiders won their first Suncoast Conference West game in two years.

yard gain, stopped at the 15 yard line. That set up Pahokee's only scoring of the night. Joe Brown's kicking arm was good, giving the Blue Devils three points from a field goal. With 5:21 left to play in the first half, the Crusaders led 7-3.

The third quarter saw no scoring action. In the fourth quarter Cardinal Newman snatched off an interception, taking over at the 35 yard line. From there, the Crusaders had a drive of four plays, topped off with the final scoring of the game. Newman's second touchdown and extra point gave them a 14-3 win over Pahokee.

tia best showing since we played Atlantic. Although it was a lost cause, the defensive unit, which has always been our best, and stongest point, played with tremendous team effort, despite Cardinal Newman's offensive force.

This week we plan to work extra hard with our offensive linemen. However, that does not mean the defense will take it easy because we will soon be on the road to state playoff games.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Coach Russell has chosen Samuel Pompey and Frank Walker as offensive and defensive players of the week, respectively. Russell noted Pompey carried the ball six times, gaining 39 yards, while Walker represented the strong Pahokee defense with 15 tackles.

COACH'S CORNER

By Head Football Coach

Antoine Russell

In Friday night's game against Cardinal Newman, Pahokee had Glades Central three with 2:23 left in the game and needing two more yards for a first down.

North Shore managed to get the ball in time to make one more threat, picking up a punt at their own 33 with 55 seconds left. Allen Johnson ended that threat when he intercepted a Mustang pass on the Raider four but a flag sent the ball back to the Raider two.

On the last play of the game,

Hammon slashed through the middle of a three yard gain to the Raider five and the Glades Central team waited out the last few seconds of the game in their own end zone.

Coach McDonald said stand-in quarterback Terry Hammon only hit on two of four attempted passes but one of those was for a 56-yard TD play. He carried three times for a total of six yards.

David Robinson carried the ball seven times for a total of 39 yards, including his 32-yard scoring run, and caught two passes for a total of five yards.

On defense, Preston Vickers led the Raiders, racking up Mustang ballcarriers 12 times and assisting on three more tackles.

Willie Gibson made nine tackles and three assists, Eric Beckford made nine tackles and an assist, Don Andrews made eight and two, Randy Burden made seven and three, Michael Russell made five and four and Freddie Garrett made five and one.

On punting, Alonzo Butts booted the ball five times for an average of 36 yards. Butts also kicked the single extra point.

Looking toward the Pahokee game, McDonald said there will be several personnel changes, with Anthony Jones being out because of his injury. He said he expects David Jones to play, however, and he is also looking forward to using five players coming up from the junior varsity team.

One of the most welcome of those new faces will be JV fullback Greg Bain, who has averaged more than 120 yards per game under Junior Varsity coach Graham Frost. McDonald said he expects Bain to take some of the pressure off David Robinson, who was virtually carried the Glades Central ground game by himself since the injury earlier in the year of Sylvester Knowles.

Gator Cubs break even with win over King's Academy Friday

BELLE GLADE—Coming off being blasted 40-8 last week, the Gator Cubs evened their record to 3-3 for the year Friday night when they defeated King's Academy in a 16-13 squeaker in Belle Glade.

It was the first year Glades Day has ever fielded a JV team and head coach Dick Schmidt said he was well pleased with the season.

The first quarter saw the Gator Cubs move ahead 8-0 on a two-yard run by Nacho Bueno followed by a conversion by Jason Shelton. Kings scored in the second quarter and moved ahead 12-8 in the third, but in the fourth Bueno again made a touchdown from the two and rambled for the conversion to place the Gators in the lead.

Bueno led the offense with 126 yards, followed by Shelton with 84. Ted Reeves gained 73 and Philip Delaney tacked on 25 for a total offense of 288 yards.

On defense, Bueno again led with nine tackles and three assists followed by Victor Perez with five and four, Reeves with five and two, and Delaney with five tackles.

"We made a lot of mistakes this year," said Schmidt, "but it was a good season."

Schmidt also said he feels the Little League football program is contributing to both the JV and high school teams in the area.

"Some of them are really learning the fundamentals and gaining experience through Little League football," said Schmidt.

Next year, Schmidt says he feels the Gator JV will again have about 25 members on the squad.

Pringle is returning to Palm Beach County

Mike Pringle, who walked off with all the goodies at the Glades Central Sports Banquet in 1976, will return to Palm Beach County Saturday when his Florida College Falcons take on Palm Beach Junior College at 7:30 p.m. in West Palm Beach.

Pringle and former Raider teammate William Likely both play basketball for the Temple Terrace School and both are listed among the starring sophomores on the team.

During his senior year at Glades Central, Pringle won the Most Valuable Player awards in both football and basketball, as well as Athlete of the Year and Charles McCurdy Awards.

At Florida College, Pringle is a 6'4" wing-forward who made all conference and Most Valuable Player as a freshman and is described as "an excellent defensive player and good jumper with good attitude and court sense."

Likely averaged 12.5 points per game as a freshman and was also named to the all conference team.

Elie Martin honored at McPherson

A former Glades Central football player was one of the two players honored recently for his offensive performance at McPherson College in McPherson, Kan.

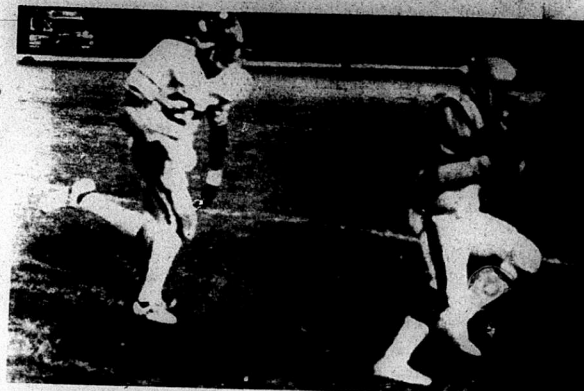

Eli Martin, who graduated from Glades Central last year, had the biggest rushing game of any Bulldog thus far this season, Coach Dan Rominger said.

The 164-pound freshman gained 86 yards on the ground against the Mountbuilders of Southwestern in a losing 17-6 effort.

Waters is assigned

BAMBERG, GERMANY—Private Clayton S. Waters, Jr., whose wife Terry Lynn, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton S. Waters, live at 230 S.E. Fourth Ave., South Bay, recently was assigned as a supply clerk with the 75th Field Artillery in Bamberg, Germany.

Pvt. Waters entered the Army last May. He completed his high school education through the General Educational Development program.

WILLIE WILLIAMS gathers in the ball and races down the sideline for a third quarter 56-yard touchdown pass play from quarterback Terry Hammon as Raiders defeated Northshore in a 13 Suncoast Conference West victory.

Weather doesn't disturb fishing

Good fishing continued in the Belle Glade area until the high winds on Friday made it necessary to search for clear, calm water.

On plastic worms on Thursday with Mrs. Inlow landing an 8 1/2 pound beauty. Mr. and Mrs. Stu Loomis of Plantation took 4 bass on Wednesday to 4 pounds and 6 more on Thursday to 9 1/2 pounds. The cooler weather seemed improve Speck fishing with several nice catches coming in night on live bait.

Gator JVers move up to varsity

BELLE GLADE—Six junior varsity Gators who have been moved up to the varsity team by head coach Byron Waler, joining one other Gator Cub, moved up two weeks ago.

The six players are Nacho Bue-no, Jason Shelton, Victor Perez, Tommy Swager, Paul Miller and Mark Allen. Donnie Coursan was moved up and in Friday's game against Florida Air saw action, carrying three times for 21 yards.

The Glades Day junior varsity recently completed its season, going 3-3 for the first year of play in junior varsity action.

"Some of the better JV players weren't moved up," said Walker, "because they are also members of the band and we didn't feel it was right for us to try to take them away from that activity."

The Gator Cubs will join the big Gators in preparing for Friday night's district championship game against Moore Haven.

Walker said the Gators will be working this week on the kickoff team, noting Kenny Buckner saved two possible touchdowns against Florida Air last week, even though he was playing injured, on kickoffs.

If Dodge's forty-plus years of four-wheel-drive experience won't sell you, the Macho will.

Get ready to get sold on some of the toughest four-wheel-drive machines to come down the pike in many a year. We're talking about the Dodge Macho Power Wagon and Dodge Macho Four by Four Ramcharger. And we're talking toughness in more ways than one. Toughness that's part of the Dodge four-wheel-drive tradition... all forty-plus years of it. Toughness that's evident in the standard features of these two trucks: including a proven 318 V8, power steering, and big, heavy-duty 10-1/2" LT tires. They're tough-looking, too. With two distinctive packages in a macho style all their own. A style that gives Dodge Macho Power Wagon special bold yellow and black striping and decals. Black-painted bumpers and body panels, painted spoke wide road wheels, body-color roll bar, black bucket seats, tinted glass all around, and your choice of nine exterior colors are all standard on the Macho Power Wagon, too. They're guaranteed to make you stand out in any crowd. The Macho Ramcharger gets special striping and decals. And a choice of painted spoke or chrome disc wide road wheels.

No wonder the Dodge Macho Power Wagon and Ramcharger Four by Four were named co-winners of Four Wheeler magazine's 1977 "Four Wheeler of the Year" award.

If our forty-plus years of four-wheel-drive experience won't sell you, then the Macho will. Come on in, see for yourself.

EASY CREDIT Low Down Payment! Low monthly payments for those qualifying.

NOW CHRISTMAS LAYAWAY PLAN Be sure to get the moped of your choice! Remember, there's a dock strike on so pick yours out while there's a good selection. A MotoBene Moped is the lowest cost and safest vehicle for a young driver. Beautifully engineered... with a top speed of 25 mph. Keeps him out of a car and off a motorcycle!

SAVE GAS! SAVE MONEY! Have fun doing your errands and short-haul trips. (It now costs up to 30¢ per mile to drive the average family car!)

FREE DEMONSTRATION RIDES ADMIT IT! Haven't you always wanted "a bicycle with a motor"? Now's your chance - and at 150 miles per gallon and no parking problems it makes a world of sense!
